

Relief Veterinarian – Richmond, Virginia

Bush Veterinary Neurology Service is seeking a Relief Veterinarian for overnight hospitalized patient care in Richmond, VA.

As a Relief Veterinarian....

You will make independent medical decisions, continually grow and learn as a veterinary professional, and will help our clients take the best possible care of their pets. You will also have the opportunity to work alongside a highly trained team, providing the best patient care possible.

You will work closely with emergency technicians in the building to monitor our patients in need of overnight care.

A standard night may include rounding with staff neurologists on current hospitalized cases, patient monitoring, adjusting medications as needed, and partnering with technicians to provide a treatment plan.

Qualifications for this role include:

- Doctor of Veterinary Medicine (DVM/VMD)
- Virginia State License, in good standing
- A sound understanding of hospitalized patient care
- Knowledge of neurology is helpful, but not required
